

Intercultural Consultation Group (ICG)

July 4th – 6th , 2019 @ YMCA One Orchard, Singapore

Co-organized by:

Takeshi Tamura Laboratory, Japan & Growing Space Psychology Center, Malaysia

Objectives

- To create a safe space for the personal and professional development of psychotherapists.
- To foster intercultural dialogue and reflection in understanding the self, family and social systems.

Format

An intentional yet flexible group process, facilitated by Dr. Takeshi Tamura (Japan), Dr. Young Ju Chun (Korea), Dr. Wentao Chao (Taiwan), and Dr. Wai Sheng Ng (Malaysia), where participants are welcome to share your personal and professional stories that you wish to deepen understanding of yourself in your respective contexts. Your gift of sharing will also serve as a learning ground for others in the group, to reflect on their own experiences and how that connects with your experience.

Targeted Participants (Limited to 16 participants only)

- Family therapists or other psychotherapists who work with families.
- A desire to engage with fellow professionals in authentic conversations relating to self-of-the-therapist, culture, gender and beyond.

Itinerary
